Take me Home to Die.

"Our darling Alice has gone, and with her lates bright she becought me to take her home to die " This land is bright, mother?
The flowers are very fair, bore's music in the orange groves, And fragrance in the sar;
But take melto my star old home.
Where the brook goes habbling by,
Let us go back, mother!
Oh! "take ine home to sile."

On? "Base inc soom to see."

Let my father's hand but rest.
In blessing on my head,
Let my hrothers and my states.
But throng around sey.
On the father around sey states.
Ecology around seyed ones none
Ecology around seyed ones none
Mynes it diplout all good sights, mother?
And sleep the sleep of death.

Then take me to the play ground,
Where I played in childhood's more
that is are soon my dear ear.
In the mean where I was born ,
Those container a flower ser fairer,
And the birth have gayer tene,
And yet I pin, my mother,
E'en fes my childhood's home.

These Sowers their sweetest sweets afford
I sceat their fragrant breath,
But ere they blown again, mother'
I shall be cold in death,

Then take me to any early home,
No roses are so dear
As thuse that bloom upon the bush,
To your old room so near It will be blooming soon, mother If the desired and see an end of the come—oh let me go!
Give me once more the need,
Befine you lay man we way to be need,
You'll plant them you way grave, mother
Say' mother will you not?
You'll lay me by the messy bank,
I've wild you of the spot.

'Tis close bende the church, mother And when you kneed to pray. 'I'll inter he your words, mother 'Though I am far away. You must not weep for me, mother 'For I shall happy be, And though I cannot stay wilb you, Yet you shall come to me.

I care not for these linds matter'
But there's a bird at bone,
It is a mid wood robin,
How soft and sweet us tome,
I bindle its neet upon the tree
That swings he fore the door,
Mother' of I sedly far
I ne'er shall hear at more

Dear mother I am tweeping, I remont stop the tears, They be swelling at the thoughts of home, And of my early years But I om getting faint, mother' Oh' take me to your breast And tetme feel your I p mother' But on my forchead prest.

There's dimners on my sight, mother i cannot get my breath, Is it your sob I hear, mother On tell me, at his death? You'll tell my father how I yearned, Once more to see him near You II kies my sistors each for me, They will forget, I fear

You'll tell my little brother,
I have gone up on high,
And if they are good children
They II see me when they die
I feel I'm going now, mether
One kuss-before we part,
I was he have to die mether. I can't go home to die, mether But my home is in your heart.
